(XLVIIth YEAR.) THE (No. 2364.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1792.

LONDON, February 27.

A TERRIBLE accident happened a ſhort time ſince at Clermont Ferrand, a town in France. A number of young perſons were collected together for a private theatrical. They had choſen for their theatre, a large room in a ruinous houſe, occupied by a peaſant. Having diſtributed a great number of tickets, the room was crowded. Juſt at the moment the repreſentation began, the joiſts gave way, and the whole company, actors and ſpectators, fell together ſixteen feet into a cellar. Notwithſtanding immediate aſſiſtance was given, 36 of the unfortunate people died on the ſpot; of thoſe who eſcaped alive, 57 had broken limbs, or were badly wounded; and the reſt were only inconſiderably bruiſed.

The following ſtory is in circulation at the weſt end of the town: his majeſty is reported to have ſent for Mr. Pitt, and ſtated, that the prince had applied to him upon the ſubject of his debts in ſo earneſt a manner, that his parental feelings could no longer reſiſt his royal highneſs's importunity, and therefore begged that Mr. Pitt would move the houſe to vote a ſum adequate to their diſcharge. Mr. Pitt, upon hearing this, is ſtated to have reſpectfully remonſtrated with his majeſty upon the ſubject, and urged the utter impoſſibility of his riſing to make a motion of the ſort, after having, on the laſt occaſion, pledged himſelf to the houſe not again to come forward with any motion of a ſimilar kind.

His majeſty is ſaid to have ſtill perſiſted in ſtating, that he would not forego his purpoſe; upon which, after endeavouring in vain, by argument and reaſon, to perſuade the king of the impropriety of the meaſure, Mr. Pitt returned his majeſty his moſt grateful thanks for his favourable opinion of his former ſervices, and having declined any further reſponſibility as a miniſter, reſpectfully took his leave.

As ſoon as Mr. Pitt had retired, the king is reported to have communicated to the queen all that had paſſed, at the ſame time acquainting her that Mr. Pitt had reſigned, and was no longer in office; a communication which it is ſaid gave great pain to the perſon to whom it was made; but after ſix hours reflection and conſideration with thoſe on whoſe advice his majeſty could beſt rely, he is reported to have altered his royal opinions and having ſeen the conduct of his former miniſter in its proper point of view, to have ſent for him and aſſured him, that as upon reflection he was perfectly ſatisfied with his arguments, he deſired him to continue in office, informing him that he would pay the whole of his royal highneſs's debts himſelf!

It is expected that the miniſter will move the houſe ſhortly for an increaſe of the income for his royal highneſs in future.

PORTSMOUTH, (N. H.) March 31.

By a gentleman immediately from Montreal we are informed, that the Meſſenger chief has actually made a viſit to that place—that he was in company with him at the interpreter's houſe—that the accounts we publiſhed in the Spy of the 24th inſtant, were true—he told our informant that they had killed 1400 of the Indians, and that he was determined to try them once more: his buſineſs at Montreal was to procure ammunition, and aſſemble the chiefs of ſome other tribes to aſſiſt in the next expedition; what ſucceſs he met with in the ſecond part of his buſineſs our informant could not aſcertain; as to the firſt, he was plumply denied, and a heavy fine by government is laid on any perſon that is known to ſupply him with one ounce of any kind of ammunition; on meeting with ſuch a diſappointment he appeared not a little mortified: our informant is of opinion that the tories will give him all the aſſiſtance in their power; many of them aſſiſted at the late unfortunate deſeat.

PITTSBURGH, April 14.

On Sunday the 1ſt of April two lads were miſſing from the waters of Wheeling, and three parties in a ſhort time went in purſuit of them.—One party, the firſt out, had croſſed the Ohio, and were on the oppoſite bank at the place where the Indians intended to croſs, at the ſame time the Indians had reached the river, and our people were unfortunately diſcovered by them. The Indians fled down the river. Captain Paul, at this time (the ſecond party) was about half a mile in the rear, and the third party lower down the river. Coming up to the place which the Indians left when diſcovered, found they had tomahawked and ſcalped the two boys, and alſo had tomahawked on the left ſide of the head another lad which they had taken, but who had not been miſſed—they had ſcalped him and cut his throat, but ſo high under the chin as not to be mortal, and though he will loſe an eye, will recover. This lad had come to himſelf and left the place where he was wounded in this deſperate manner before our people came up, and had got upon one of the horſes which the Indians had ſtolen, and which they were obliged to quit, and had rode three miles into Grave creek ſettlement. On Wedneſday following, a woman was killed and ſcalped near Mr. Brice's meeting houſe, within two hundred yards of the great road leading from Waſhington to Wheeling, and fifteen miles within the ſettlement.—In conſequence of the above information Abſalom Baird, Eſquire, lieutenant of Waſhington county, has ordered out a party of militia.

A man whoſe name I do not recollect being on Thurſday the 5th inſtant, at the houſe of the family of the name of Edgar, they were talking of removing to another houſe of the name of Humphreys; going back to Edgar's on Friday about noon, he found the family gone, and ſuppoſing they had gone to Humphreys, went over there, and when within ſome diſtance of the houſe, ſaw a number of mangled carcaſes, inſtantly made his retreat, and brought in the intelligence. Theſe families conſiſted of upwards of twenty perſons, young and old. The ſettlement is under a general alarm, and Wolf's old fort is talked of as the place of ſtand. This is within five miles of the town of Waſhington.

A letter from Wheeling fort, dated the 4th inſtant, ſays, "We are informed by Mr. Whitſel, one of our ſpies, who arrived here laſt night about midnight, that he made diſcoveries of two parties of Indians, hunting on the head waters of Capteenah; that he believes a larger party of Indians was not far diſtant, and ſuppoſes they will croſs the Ohio at the mouth of Fiſh creek."

From a CORRESPONDENT.

Saturday laſt two large boats with 100 barrels of flower, and two waggon loads of whiſky and beef on board, arrived here from Canonſburgh down Chartiers creek, without ſuſtaining the leaſt damage. What a ſaving would it be to this country if proper attention was paid by our legiſlature to the improvement of ſuch ſtreams which by a ſmall expence could be made navigable throughout the year.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Lancaſter, to his friend in Philadelphia, dated April 16, 1792.

"Laſt Thurſday, about noon, arrived at Columbia, (Wright's ferry on the Suſquehanna) Meſſieurs Neaff and Keller, from the Standing Stone on Juniata, with their boat, of an extraordinary ſize, laden with 1050 buſhels of wheat, ſeveral hundred weight of hemp, a great quantity of gun ſtocks, &c. &c. The arrival of this boat was announced to us, by a letter from Mr. Samuel Wright, on Friday morning, with an invitation to ſuch gentlemen as had curioſity to ſee her, to come up. A number of us ſet out for Lancaſter immediately. On our arrival we found, to our ſurpriſe, a boat of an amazing ſize, but ſimply conſtructed, without the leaſt particle of iron about her, except the hand pump. She is 80 feet in length, and 14 feet wide. When launched ſhe drew only 8 inches water, and after receiving the above load drew only 19 inches. From appearances and the height of the river, ſhe might have taken at leaſt 2020 buſhels on board, without the leaſt riſk. She did not coſt above 40 dollars. A number of gentlemen purpoſe purchaſing her, and to leave her at the ferry until fall, for thoſe that have curioſity to ſee her. Thus you ſee that our Conowago Falls, which have been for many years conſidered as ſo great an impediment to the navigation of the Suſquehanna, are now found to be a very trifling obſtruction. Large quantities of wheat have likewiſe been brought down to Wright's ferry upon rafts.

"The owners of the boat intend, immediately on their return, to build another of about 100 feet in length and 18 or 20 feet in width, which they ſay will carry at leaſt 2500 or 3000 buſhels. Numbers of raft men, who were at Wright's, have taken the dimenſions of Neaff and Keller's boat, and it is expected that grain will be brought down the river from all quarters, in boats of that kind: they are not expenſive, for though they will not do to take back again, yet the timber and boards being at all times worth half of the firſt coſt, the loſs will be inconſiderable. Notwithſtanding the jealouſy of the Philadelphians, who have taken all poſſible means to prevent a canal being cut through Dr. Harris's land, when a company applied to the legiſlature for that purpoſe; and who, when they wiſhed to carry their canal, thought nothing of cutting up the lands of hundreds to pieces to anſwer their own ends. I have no doubt that they have miſtaken their object and are blind to their intereſts.

"P. S. I neglected to mention, that ſeveral hundred perſons attended yeſterday at the ferry to ſee the boat; that a number of millers vied with each other in their endeavours to encourage a good price for the grain, and to promote an emulation among others, in the proſecution of this pleaſing buſineſs."

Extract of a letter from Liſbon, dated 15th February, 1792.

"The queen being in a very ill ſtate of health, has ſent the enclоſed decrees to the tribunals, the prince continuing the public buſineſs, and ſigning all ſtate papers in her name. We are all very much affected at the ſituation of ſo good a ſovereign, the diſorder having attacked her head ſo that ſhe has loſt the right uſe of her ſenſes."

TRANSLATION of the DECREE.

The adminiſtration of public affairs having devolved upon me by the notorious diſability of our lady the queen, and the phyſicians having declared that all application to public buſineſs would be injurious to her health. Yielding therefore to circumſtances and unavoidable neceſſity, and to the will of the ſaid queen, which has opportunely been made known, I have reſolved to attend in council and ſign public diſpatches in her name, without making any alteration in the accuſtomed forms, ſo long as the ſaid impediment ſhall laſt, or until ſhe ſhall be pleaſed to order it otherwiſe,

(Signed) JOSE DE SIABRA DE SA, &c.
(With the flouriſh of the prince our lord.)

Extract from a letter from major George M'Cully, dated 14th April, 1792.

"I have the pleaſure to inform you, that Dunwoodie's waggons arrived here on Monday the 10th, in the evening. On Wedneſday I had captain Smith's company muſtered, armed and equipped; and on Thurſday they commenced their march to take poſt at Big Beaver and Yellow creeks. We want but five privates to complete the whole corps under my command, &c.

"It is reported that one woman has been killed within the bounds of Waſhington county; but I have not official accounts of this from captain Paul, who commands in that neighbourhood: on the contrary, I had a letter from him, dated the 1ſt of April, in which he ſays, that no diſcoveries of Indians have been made, and that all is well.

"To-morrow major Irwine and myſelf ſet out to view the lines, and muſter captain Paul's and captain Guthrie's companies."

By a gentleman lately arrived here, we learn, that general Bowles, who has figured ſome time paſt as an Indian chief, is now on his way to viſit Old Spain. He had commenced his paſſage from New Orleans on board a government cutter, attended by a military eſcort.

It is preſumed that he may have ſome accounts to ſettle in Spain reſpecting goods that he has taken from certain ſtores in Florida, without the conſent of the owners.

Extract of a letter from an officer of the 2d United States regiment, to a gentleman in Providence, dated Muriatta, March 13.

"Such has been the ſeverity of our winter, that the Ohio and Muſkingum rivers have been paſſable upon their ſurfaces with teams;—a circumſtance very unuſual in this country.

"To this inclemency we may however aſcribe, in a great degree, the pacific deportment of the neighbouring Indians; they having been confined by the rigour of the ſeaſon to their reſpective towns, in conſequence of which we have been at leiſure to erect an additional block-houſe, and otherwiſe ſtrengthen our works.

"The garriſon having been reinforced by the arrival of lieutenant Howe and 30 men from Pittſburgh, we are now in a ſituation to afford theſe bipeds of the foreſt a very warm reception, ſhould they poſſeſs the temerity to provoke it.

"The ſettlement has not been moleſted ſince the action, nor do we apprehend any thing ſerious from an eſcalade. I am much pleaſed to hear of the ſpirited exertions for the next campaign, which I flatter myſelf will enable us to render a more favourable account of the enemy, among whom no ſmall diſſatisfaction prevails, in conſequence of the partial diſtribution of their late booty. The Indians inhabiting the weſtern extremity of the Lake were highly diſguſted with the conduct of the Miamas, and told them in reſentment that "in future they might fight their own battles" The account adds, that the Indian warriors, in the action of the 4th of November, amounted to 1500."

SAVANNA, April 5.

We learn from good authority, that general M'Gillivray has returned to the Creek Nation, and that the Indians have very lately given the ſtrongeſt aſſurances of their diſpoſition for peace. A great number of them are expected at the Rock Landing the 20th inſtant.

CHARLESTON, April 18.

By a letter received in town from the Rock Landing, we are informed, that on information of Mr. Bowles's having taken poſſeſſion of the ſtore of Meſſrs. Panton, Leſlie and Co. the Indians had diſpatched a party to put him to death, but were prevented by the Spaniards, who previouſly had ſent a veſſel with a number of ſoldiers; on their approach, the boat was ſent aſhore, to inform Bowles that the veſſel was from the Weſt

Indies with goods for him. In conſequence of this information, he came on board, when they ſeized him and immediately made ſail for St. Auguſtine, where Mr. Bowles is now confined in the caſtle.

Mr. M'Gillivray has wrote to Mr. Seagrove, that he will be at the Rock Landing about the beginning of May, with 3000 of the Creeks, in order to confirm the treaty and run the lines.

HYDER ALLY,

NOW the property of the subscriber, is in high perfection, and stands this season at the seat of RICHARD CHEW, Esquire, to cover mares at two guineas each, payable the first day of September next, when it is expected the strictest punctuality will be observed.

He was got by the noted Arabian, his dam by Othello, his grand-dam (an imported mare from the duke of Hamilton's stud) by Spot, his great-grand-dam by Cartouch, his great-great grand-dam by Old Traveller, his great-great-great-grand-dam by Sedbury, his great-great-great-great-grand-dam by Childers, out of a Barb mare.

PARTS of Silver Stone and Major's Choice, being on Fishing creek, and full in view of the Chesapeake Bay, containing 350 acres of as rich heavy timbered land as any in the state, two thirds of which is covered with heavy wood, the remainder is in cultivation, which will readily produce 50,000 pounds of fine tobacco per annum, besides grain of every kind in great abundance.

Several acres of this valuable tract are now in meadow, and produce as fine grass, and as great a quantity, as any place in the world; much more land, at a trifling expence, may be made into meadow, equal in goodness; it has also the desirable advantage of affording the most excellent fish, oysters and wild fowl, in their season.

The improvements are a dwelling house, several negro quarters, three tobacco houses, corn house, &c. all in good repair; its great value and agreeable situation renders every other encomium unnecessary.

Annapolis, January 1, 1792.

At a meeting of the VISITORS and GOVERNORS of ST. JOHN's COLLEGE, in the state of Maryland, on Thursday the 10th of November last,

RESOLVED,

THAT this board, at the quarterly meeting in May next, proceed to elect a VICE-PRINCIPAL of St. John's College.

That it be the duty of the principal and vice-principal to teach some of the higher authors in Latin and Greek, certain parts of the mathematics, logic, and moral and natural philosophy; and that the departments of the said principal and vice-principal shall hereafter be ascertained with precision, on consideration of their mutual convenience and qualifications.

That the vice-principal shall be entitled to receive, for his services, a salary of three hundred and fifty pounds current money, rating dollars at 7/6 each, to be paid quarterly.

That persons desirous of, and qualified for, the office of vice-principal, be, by public advertisement, requested to make application to Mr. Charles Wallace, Mr. Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Mr. Alexander Contee Hanson, all of the city of Annapolis.

By order of the Board,

JOHN THOMAS, President.

N. B. The fundamental laws of St. John's college prohibit all preference on account of religious tenets or opinions.

As the appointment of a vice-principal is alone wanted to complete the plan of this rising seminary, the board will certainly proceed, at the time stated, to an election, provided a person qualified, in their judgment, for this important office, can be procured. The personal attendance of the candidates, although not positively required, will be obviously proper.

It may be useful to remark, that the salaries of all the professors and teachers have hitherto been paid with entire punctuality, and that the funds of St. John's college produce a certain annual income superior to all the appropriations which have been or probably will be made.

The Printers of news-papers throughout the United States are earnestly requested to insert the above resolve and remarks, and to repeat the publication as often as convenience will permit.
